

THE BETSY-TACY SERIES BY MAUD HART LOVELACE

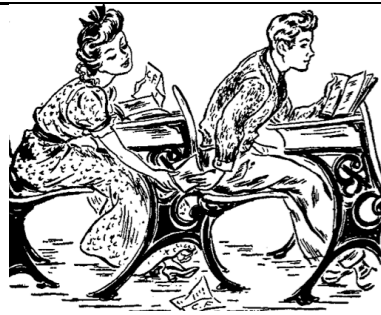

American girls in the 1900s

When Betsy Ray turns five, she gets the greatest present ever – Tacy, a new best friend who lives right across the street! With their friend Tib, the girls have all kinds of fun adventures:

- ★ Learning to fly – they’re practicing in this picture!
- ★ Making Everything Pudding (which contains a little bit of every single thing in the kitchen – want to try it?)
- ★ Planning to marry the King of Spain, and then meeting a real-life princess
- ★ Trying to hypnotize their friend Winona

THE BETSY-TACY SERIES BY MAUD HART LOVELACE

“If you haven’t read the Betsy-Tacy books yet . . . what are you waiting for?”

– Meg Cabot

It’s 1907, and Betsy Ray has a few things on her mind: Will I ever be pretty? Why did we have to move?

Can I make my crush see me as more than a friend? Why doesn’t my English teacher like me? How can I help my BFF be less shy around boys? Sound like anyone you know?

Get to know Betsy, Tacy, and their whole Crowd of friends in Deep Valley!

The series begins when Betsy and Tacy are five, but you might like to start with the fifth book, HEAVEN TO BETSY. The girls are 14, it’s the first day of high school – and a boy shows up to walk to school with them! Who is he?? Start reading and find out!

Timeless Tales of a Life-Long Friendship

Enjoy going back to the early 1900s

– a time when life

moved at a slower pace and children invented their own wholesome fun. From age 5 through young adulthood, Betsy and Tacy teach us that every girl has an important story to tell and that the best present is the gift of a friend.
